Fund Manager's Report

The Fund declined by 0.69% in November 2019, outperforming the benchmark by 1.32%. Stocks selection in Consumer Goods, Industrials, Oil & Gas, Healthcare and Technology contributed positively. YTD, the fund has outperformed the Benchmark by 8.55%.

Going into 2020, we expect Malaysian economic growth to remain moderate due to external headwinds from the ongoing US-China trade tension. That said, this will be mitigated by more growth-oriented Budget 2020 and accommodating monetary policy. While political and regulatory risks remain elevated, we do not believe that this will deteriorate further. We expect GLC reforms to take centre stage again following a slew of leadership changes in GLICs and GLCs since the general election in May 2018. Malaysia is also benefiting from trade diversion with the increase in FDIs flow, but the government would need to do more to restore business and consumer confidence in order to boost both domestic investment and consumption. On corporate earnings, we take comfort from the stabilization in consensus earnings expectation following earlier sharp cuts. In fact, we expect KLCI earnings to rebound by 6.9% in 2020 driven by the banks and plantation sectors. Malaysia experienced the largest monthly outflow in November since August 2019 with a net outflow of USD370.4m which coincides with MSCI EM rebalancing during the month. YTD, Malaysia saw the largest net outflow of USD2.39bn among ASEAN markets. Positively, foreign shareholding in Malaysia has declined to 22.9% in Sep, which is close to a 10-year low. This suggests that foreign net outflow should ease going forward.

Despite moderate growth outlook, we upgrade Malaysia to OVERWEIGHT as we turn constructively more positive going into 2020. KLCI's valuation has now dipped to 15.4x which is at -1 standard deviation. We believe earnings downside risk has narrowed significantly following recent cuts which is further supported by undemanding valuation now. As such, we take a barbell approach on high yield sectors like REITs, Telecommunication and utilities and increasing our exposure on cyclical growth sectors like plantation, oil and gas and the technology sectors.
