Fund Manager's Report

In May, the Fund dropped 1.99% underperforming the benchmark by 0.31ppt led by India, Indonesia, Hong Kong SAR while China, Malaysia and Singapore lagged. YTD, the fund still outperformed the benchmark by 1.29ppt.

Rising Covid-19 infections has been a headwind for Asian markets as we saw the resurgence of new cases. However, in India, the situation improved. Where in April, we saw cases exceeding last year's peak, we saw a decline in cases/day in May to 200,000. Across Asia, countries are stepping up on vaccination programs and are better equipped, hence the impact of Covid is not expected to be as significant as the year before. While global inflation has risen due to higher input prices from raw materials and energy, as well as cost pressures from a global component parts shortage, we remain of the view that the rise in inflation is transitory. The US labour market is tightening as victory over Covid gets nearer however and we continue to keep a close watch on developments.

We are positive on Asian equities over a 12-month horizon. We have broadened out our portfolio into industrials and materials and have recently added back to India equities as we saw an improvement in the Covid situation in the country. Off-benchmark stocks contribute ~40% to our portfolio holdings.

<sup>a</sup>Based on the fund's portfolio returns as at 15 May 2021, the Volatility Factor (VF) for this fund is 13.260 and is classified as "Moderate" (source: FIMM). The VF means there is a possibility for the fund in generating an upside return or downside return around this VF. The Volatility Class (VC) is assigned by FIMM based on quintile ranks of VF for qualified funds. VF is subject to monthly revision and VC will be revised every six months. The fund's portfolio may have changed since this date and there is no guarantee that the fund will continue to have the same VF or VC in the future. Presently, only funds launched in the market for at least 36 months will display the VF and its VC.
