INVESTORS' LETTER

Dear Valued Investor,

The global equity markets maintained its uptrend in May despite continued volatility arising from concerns of potentially higher inflation and policy changes. Equity markets with the highest return were in Asia, led by India at 6.5%, and the Shanghai Composite at 4.9%, followed by the STOXX Europe 600 at 2.1%. The bond indices gained more grounds in May 2021, after the turnaround in April 2021, with growth of 0.7% to 1.1%.

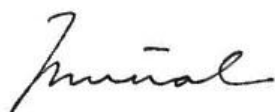

Our investment team continue to do their best to make the right decisions to maximise fund returns to help you meet your long-term investment needs. We are positive on Asian equities on a long-term basis and have added more ASEAN names on anticipation of a broader recovery which would be enhanced by the greater availability of Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("COVID-19") vaccines.

We are pleased to share that we have won awards for Best Online & Mobile Platform (Asset Manager), Best Fund with the optimal Sharpe ratio and Best Fund Manager for Pension Mandates & Private Retirement Schemes at Alpha Southeast Asia's 12th Fund Management Awards 2021.

MARKET REVIEW (1 MARCH 2021 TO 31 MAY 2021)

Global equities rose in March 2021 as investors continued to price in a brightening global economic outlook, despite fresh concerns of lockdowns in Europe. The market remains in the restoration phase of the economic cycle, with activity still below pre-COVID-19 levels in major economies, other than China. Hidden unemployment, fragile confidence and COVID-19 risks mean the global economy needs ongoing policy support. Global Central Banks continue to expand balance sheets and deploy lower-for-even-longer interest rates. Compared to the West, monetary policy in China is set to become relatively hawkish. Across Asia, incremental stimulus will be more limited.

In April 2021, global equities made further gains amid upbeat global recovery prospectus and the US Federal Reserve (the "Fed") reassurance. The market is still in the restoration phase of the economic cycle, with activity below pre- COVID-19 levels in major economies, apart from China. The ongoing COVID-19 risks mean the global economy is dependent on policy support. Across Asia, incremental stimulus will be limited due to inflation pressures.

MARKET REVIEW (1 MARCH 2021 TO 31 MAY 2021) (CONTINUED)

Global markets rose marginally in May 2021 as the US is leading the recovery, boosted by supportive fiscal policy. Meanwhile, Europe’s vaccine rollout gathers pace and many Emerging Markets (“EM”) continued to struggle to control the virus so far. Finally, China and North Asian economies have largely recovered after suppressing the COVID-19. In the short-term, inflation numbers are likely to remain elevated given: energy price rises, supply chain disruption, and base effects, however the longer-term inflation outlook still remains muted. Most importantly, the Fed’s policy framework implies a willingness to look through these short-term Consumer Price Index (“CPI”) increases and delay interest rate rises.

MARKET OUTLOOK*

As we remain in the restoration phase of the economic cycle, the pace of recovery will depend on vaccine delivery and continued policy support. We expect further monetary policy innovation across Developed Markets (“DM”). We see China and other EMs limiting its stimulus as it focusses on financial stability. The key downside risks to the global recovery are vaccine-resistant strains impacting market sentiment, vaccine complacency, or stimulus fatigue leading to the early withdrawal of stimulus support. Short term increases in inflation may trigger a bond market sell-off.
