Fund Manager's Report

For the month of March, the Fund was flat in MYR terms, underperforming the benchmark by 137 basis points. The main detractors were Malaysia and India. While year-to-date, the Fund declined 4.97%, underperforming the Benchmark by 210 bps.

The US tariff hikes were higher than expected and could lead to weaker global growth. The optimistic view is that tariffs are a negotiating tactic intended to pave the way for an extension of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. But the Trump administration may also want to rewire global trade practices. With the export outlook becoming more difficult, China's domestic economy will have to pick up the slack. Policies to boost consumption and revive the private sector are more probable now that China has retaliated to US's tariffs. We have preference for domestic-oriented stocks and are positioned in the areas of e-commerce, cloud, electric vehicles and travel. Elsewhere, we have moderated our positions in Taiwan technology and Japan industrial, whereby global growth or tariffs can be an issue. In India, we need to see more signs of corporate-level growth improvement to turn more positive. However, from a portfolio perspective, we have incrementally added to India as it offers some insulation against the tariff situation compared to other Asian countries. We favor areas such as cement, selected two and four-wheelers and hospitals. In the coming months, we can look forward to RBI's continued monetary easing, income tax reliefs from April onwards, and easing commodity prices (e.g. crude oil) as catalysts for a more favorable India outlook.

Malaysia's manufacturing sector improved markedly in February with a PMI reading of 49.7pts vs. 48.7pts in the previous month and was the highest reading since August 2024. That said, several respondents are still seeing challenging business conditions. Employment was scaled back fractionally, while cost inflation remains subdued and allowed firms to reduce selling prices for the second consecutive month. The latest PMI data suggests modest growth in GDP for 1Q25 sustaining the trend seen in 2H24. To recap, Malaysia's GDP grew by 5.0% in 4Q24 and 5.1% for 2024. BNM projects GDP to grow by 4.5 - 5.5% in 2025. BNM maintained OPR at 3.00% during the recent MPC meeting and we expect the central bank to hold rates steady given muted inflation and modest economic growth.

Elevated volatility likely persists due to uncertainties on the Trump administration and policies. There was a widespread decline across various markets and Malaysia was not spared. For Malaysia, we remain constructive on defensive sectors and quality names as we selectively deploying cash that were raised earlier. We believe improved political stability, stronger earnings growth prospects and higher domestic investments would keep the market afloat. Key catalysts are domestic fiscal reforms, surge in investments and elevated domestic liquidity. Key risks are the derailment of Malaysia's macroeconomic recovery and corporate earnings growth due to the larger-than-expected impact of rising inflation, slower global economic growth, and heightened geopolitical risk. For regional, we trimmed positions in selected global technology stocks with the risk-off sentiment and have partially deployed the proceeds to a few ideas in China and India in the areas of consumer staples and automotive.

^Based on the fund's portfolio returns as at 15 March 2025, the Volatility Factor (VF) for this fund is 11.66 and is classified as "Moderate" (source: FIMM). The VF means there is a possibility for the fund in generating an upside return or downside return around this VF.
