Fund Manager's Report

During the month, our Fund rose 3.06%, underperforming the Benchmark by 68bps, mainly due to its structural underweight in a Taiwanese technology name in the benchmark which performed well. Year-to-date, our Fund rose 5.7%, outperforming the Benchmark by 86bps.

We are starting to see more forceful measures in China as witnessed by several moves including a 25bps cut in the five-year loan prime rate which affects mortgages, sovereign entities buying more exchange traded funds (ETFs) and some greenshoots in the economy with better tourism spending during the Spring Festival. While we have turned incrementally more positive on China, we are mindful that its policies are a work-in-progress and efficacies remain to be seen. Meanwhile, in South Korea, the government's efforts to promote shareholder returns known as 'Corporate Value-up Program' akin to what happened in Japan could result in a re-rating in the stock market in the longer run. In Asia, we are positive on the recovery of the technology hardware cycle and broad-based growth in India. We remain fully invested and well positioned in the areas of a) bottoming of the tech hardware cycle b) strong private sector confidence in India c) selected global names with resilient demand in the areas of consumption, energy and technology. During the month, we bought into two-wheelers and industrials in India, global technology companies in the chipmaking value-chain, a Chinese education company and sold a DRAM position due to index exclusion.

For Malaysia Equity, we remain constructive on sectors that stand to gain from the NETR, including Utilities, Construction, and Property. Additionally, we are optimistic on selective Technology due to the ongoing structural growth trends in the sector. Key risks are the derailment of Malaysia's macroeconomic recovery and corporate earnings growth due to the larger-than-expected impact of rising inflation, slower global economic growth, and heightened geopolitical risks.

^Based on the fund's portfolio returns as at 15 February 2024, the Volatility Factor (VF) for this fund is 9.71 and is classified as "Moderate" (source: FIMM). The VF means there is a possibility for the fund in generating an upside return or downside return around this VF.
